

1975

James M. Moffett keeps a pledge to his father, Samuel Austin Moffett, to return a Korean flag to Songail College when it became possible to fly it again in Korea. Dr. Moffett had been forced by the Japanese government to remove it in 1919. He asked his son, Jim to keep it safe in America until he could return it to a free Korea.